WELCOME

---

On behalf of the Vestry and People of Christ Church, I welcome you on this most joyous day in the life of our community. We are so glad you are here to worship with us!

Today we join with Christians in every corner of the world to proclaim the good news of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. We celebrate an event which changed the course of human history. The rising of Jesus from the grave shatters the threat and finality of death, and reminds us that with God, all things are possible. On this day we lift our voices in songs of praise, rejoicing in the hope and promise of eternal life.

I hope that this happy morning offers you the chance to connect more deeply with God, with those around you and with your own best self. I invite you to enter fully into our liturgy through the readings, prayers and uplifting Easter hymns. I pray that you will find your spirit renewed and your soul nourished through the joyful worship we offer here in Christ's name.

Welcome to Easter morning!

Peace to you,

The Rev. Chris Streeter, Rector

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray. Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson

Isaiah 25:6-9

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

On this day the Lord has act-ed; we will re-joice and be glad in it.

- 14 The LORD is my strength and my song, *
and he has become my salvation.
- 15 There is a sound of exultation and victory *
in the tents of the righteous: [ANTIPHON]
- 16 “The right hand of the LORD has triumphed! *
the right hand of the LORD is exalted!
the right hand of the LORD has triumphed!”
- 17 I shall not die, but live, *
and declare the works of the LORD. [ANTIPHON]
- 22 The same stone which the builders rejected *
has become the chief cornerstone.
- 23 This is the LORD’S doing, *
and it is marvelous in our eyes. [ANTIPHON]

The Second Lesson

Acts 10:34-43

Peter began to speak to Cornelius and the other Gentiles: “I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 28:1-10

After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.' This is my message for you." So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

The Nicene Creed

---

Please stand

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please stand or kneel

Accept, O God, our thanks and praise on this Easter Day for raising Jesus Christ from the tomb. We thank you for the gift of new life, a second chance, a fresh start, a clear morning. Help us to accept the new life you offer to us. Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

O God, we give you thanks for this parish family and our worship together. May those who are visiting today find their spirits refreshed by our worship and welcome. Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

Almighty God, bless the leaders of our land, that we may be a people at peace among ourselves and a blessing to the other nations of the earth. Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for those in any need or trouble. We remember those who are ill, including those on our prayer list, and the families, friends, and medical staff who care for them. Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

We remember our troops stationed around the world and the inhabitants of all war-torn countries. May we strive to end cycles of violence by modeling the care and compassion of Jesus. Help us to be healers in a wounded world. Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

We remember those in whose memory the flowers are given today, and all others whom we love but see no longer. In a moment of silence, let us pray for those who are dear to us.

A period of silence is kept.

In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them. In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them. When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them. When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them. Thank you, O God, for giving them to us, to know and to love as companions on our earthly pilgrimage. Bless them and keep them, make your face to shine upon them, and grant them peace. Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

The Celebrant may add a concluding prayer.

The Peace

---

Celebrant     The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People         And also with you.

Welcome & Announcements

The Rev. Chris Streeter

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus & Benedictus

William Mathias

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

The Memorial Acclamation

Celebrant

There - fore, ac - cord - ing to his com - mand, O Fa - ther,

Celebrant and People

We re - mem - ber his death, We pro - claim his re - sur - rec - tion, We a - wait his com - ing in glo - ry.

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ev - er. A - men.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say, Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

All are welcome at God's Table

Please come forward, at the direction of the ushers. The bread is received in the open palm. Gluten-free wafers are available by asking the priest. The wine, if desired, may be taken from the common cup by drinking (placing your hand gently on the base of the chalice to guide it). If you do not wish to receive communion, you may cross your arms over your chest and receive a blessing from the priest.

When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

Gilbert Martin

*When I survey the wondrous cross
 on which the Prince of glory died, My richest gain I count but loss, and pour contempt on all my pride.*

*See, from His head, his hands, his feet,
 sorrow and love flow mingled down!
 Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,

*Forbid it Lord, that I should boast,
 save in the death of Christ, my God!
 All vain things that charm me most,
 I sacrifice them to His blood.*

*Were the whole realms of nature mine,
 that were a present far too small;
 love so amazing, so divine,
 demands my soul, my life, my all. Amen.*

If you are looking for a blessing,
do not linger
here.

Here
is only emptiness,
a hollow,
a husk
where a blessing
used to be.

This blessing
was not content
in its confinement.
It could not abide
its isolation,
the unrelenting silence,
the pressing stench
of death.

So if it is a blessing
you seek,
open your own
mouth.

Fill your lungs
with the air
this new morning brings
and then release it with a cry.

Hear how the blessing
breaks forth
in your own voice,
how your own lips
form every word
you never dreamed
to say.

See how the blessing
circles back again,
wanting you to repeat it,
but louder,
how it draws you,
pulls you,
sends you
to proclaim
its only word:

Risen.

Risen.

Risen.
